

MANGALORE UNIVERSITY

(Accredited by NAAC)

DEPARTMENT OF PG STUDIES AND RESEARCH IN STATISTICS

AND

MANGALA ALUMNI ASSOCIATION (MAA)

Organise

ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON STATISTICAL CONSULTANCY

Report

Number of participants register: 115

Number of participants attended: 103

One day workshop on Statistical Consultancy is jointly organized by Department of PG Studies and Research in Statistics and Mangala Alumni Association (MAA), Mangalore University held on July 16th 2022. The workshop is inaugurated by Prof. P L Dharma, Registrar Evaluation, Mangalore University. He highlighted the importance of literature review, reporting language and statistical analysis in producing the quality research articles. Dr. Devi Prabha Alva, vice-president of MAA, portrays the importance of Statistical consultancy in numerous fields and motivated everyone to actively participate. The convener of the workshop Prof. T P M Pakkala briefed about significant role of Statistics in research. Dr. Chandru Hegde, Assistant Professor of mathematics welcomed the guests and participants and Dr. Harsha S, guest faculty of statistics proposed the vote of thanks.

The Key idea behind this program is to enrich the capability of applying quality and suitable Statistical analysis in the research. Prof. T P M Pakkala, former Professor of Department of Statistics, Mangalore University, Prof. Ismail B, Professor of Statistics, Yenepoya Deemed to be University and Prof. Asha Kamath, Department of Data Science, Manipal University, MAHE, were shared their in-depth knowledge of Statistics and counsel the participants to way forward their research. 103 members of Mangalore University Jurisdiction were benefitted from this workshop. Finance officer, Deans of faculties, Professors from various Department of Mangalore University and executive members of MAA were witnessed the programme.

